

...To the Memory

A reception followed the stained glass dedication, giving family and friends the opportunity to reminiscence and share special memories of Lynda. Rather than sadness, there was a mood of celebration for a life richly lived.

"Lynda Crumley could not have been more pleased with the way the Friends of Smyrna Library chose to honor her life," family and friends say.

One of the two stained glass windows placed in the library in her memory features Smyrna's old train depot. When growing up, Lynda's parents, Charlie and Dewrell Yancey, lived on Mann Street near the railroad tracks. "Her father loved hearing the train whistle," says her son Dave.

"Charlie loved trains and he loved the old depot," Dave's wife, Katy agrees. "Some call it coincidence that the depot was chosen. We call it God's guiding hand."

INCLUDING FOSL IN YOUR ESTATE PLANS

by Joan Stuart

Chartered in 1990, The Friends of Smyrna Library (FOSL) is an independent, non-profit, volunteer organization that supports the Smyrna Public Library through fundraising events and volunteer activities. FOSL is a member of the Friends of Libraries USA organization and is one of the most active friends chapter in Georgia. FOSL's cash donations and volunteer support provide important enhancements to the Smyrna Library.

Some of our work is made possible through the foresight and generosity of those individuals who included Friends of Smyrna Library in their estate plans. Estate gifts may be designated for a particular program, entity, or activity.

Please contact our board president, Linda Evans, for confidential information on how to include FOSL in your estate plans.
