

MURDER GOES SOUTH
A Festival of Mystery Writers and Readers
Saturday, January 21, 2006
9:30 a.m.—4 p.m.

Program

Welcome and Introduction—Linda Evans, President FOSL

9:30 a.m. 10:25 a.m.— P.I. 101—Training of a Private Investigator

Eddie Rogers

Adjunct Professor at Chattahoochee Technical College

10:30 a.m. -11:25 a.m.— 1st Topic—Cozy or Harboiled? What's your pleasure when it comes to mystery?

The Writers

Cathy Pickens
Cheryl Ritzel
Vonda Skelton
Walter Sorrells

11:30 a.m.-12:40 p.m.—Lunch—2 Special Treats

Special Treats

- 1. For writers and those with an interest in writing, Craig Faris will conduct a class entitled—“The Wrong Way to Get Published—How to write query letters and turn mistakes into Positives”
- 2. For mystery lovers, writer John DeDakis will speak on “From Journalist to Novelist (or How I learned to stop telling the truth and start making it up!” and about his mystery novel, FAST TRACK.

12:45 p.m.—1:30 p.m.— 2nd Topic--Truth vs Fiction—Which one is really Stranger?

The Writers

Craig Faris
Ellis Vidler
Jaclyn Weldon White

1:40 p.m.—2:30 p.m.— Poisonous Plants In and Around Your Home

Joyce and Jim Lavene

2:45 p.m.—3:15 p.m.—The Wrap-up—Questions and Answers

3:15 p.m.—4:00 p.m.—Meet the Writers—Book Signing