Third Annual Murder Goes South Forum

Projecting the Beauty, History and Allure of the South in the Mystery Novel

The Friends of the Smyrna Library and the Southeast Mystery Writers Association are again sponsoring the annual mystery writers forum, Murder Goes South. The 2005 forum will be held Friday and Saturday, January 28 and 29, 2005.

The Southern mystery has come of age. With so much history, beauty, and tradition, Southern writers of mystery will never be at a loss for resources.

Preserving and protecting these resources through the written word enhances and enriches our lives and the lives of all generations to come.

This year, we're adding a Friday night dinner with Carolyn Hart.

On Saturday, join us and a panel of distinguished Southern mystery writers as we show writers use the natural beauty, history, traditions, and unique culture of the South as key ingredients in their thrillers.

There will be a Q&A session, book signings, crime workshops, and a chance to meet the writers.

Come for the dinner, the forum, or both days. We'd love to have you!

The January Reading Group will be reading selections from our MGS authors. See "Meet the Writers" on page 6 to learn more about our panel and their works.

Sponsors

The forum is sponsored by the Friends of the Smyrna Library, the Southeast Mystery Writers Association, and Barnes and Noble.

Jim Wooten will moderate the Q&A session with the writers. He is a member of the board of directors of the Friends of the Smyrna Library, and associate editorial page editor of the Atlanta Journal Constitution.
